

Iron Springs 4th Grade Guaranteed and Viable Curriculum- GVCs

Language Arts

- *I can describe the overall text structure of a text.
- *I can summarize texts telling the most important details, as well as determine the main idea of a text
- *I can read and comprehend stories appropriate for a fourth grader
- *I can draw inferences from a text and refer the details in the text while explaining my inferences
- *I can use and identify figurative language such as metaphors, similes, onomatopoeias, personification, hyperboles, alliteration, and idioms.
- *I can demonstrate conventions and use correct grammar, as well as produce complex sentences.

Writing

- *I can write an opinion piece including a well stated topic, reasons supported by facts, and a strong conclusion.
- *I can write an informative/explanatory text that introduces a topic developed with facts and details, using precise language, ending with a concluding statement.

Math

- *I can understand and compare decimals and fractions and understand how they relate to tenths and hundredths.
- *I can order, fractions and find equivalent fractions.
- *I can solve real world multi-digit division problems.
- *I can solve real world multi-digit multiplication problems.
- *I can understand place value and perform multi-digit problems up to one million.

Science

- *I understand how fossils are formed and can make inferences about them.
- *I can identify rocks and explain how weather and erosion move materials to become soil.
- *I can observe, record, and predict the weather, as well as classify clouds.
- *I can understand and describe water as it relates to the water cycle.
- *I can identify physical characteristics and common organisms of Utah's wetlands, forests, and deserts.